HRADF: Launch of the tender for the long-term lease of the Olympic Equestrian Center of Markopoulo, Attica

HRADF, a member company of the GROWTHFUND – The National Fund of Greece, announces the launch of an international tender for the exploitation of the former Olympic Equestrian Center of Markopoulo, Attica, where the equestrian events were held during the 2004 Olympic Games.

The property to be developed has an area of 589.4 acres and includes closed and open sports facilities for the service of equestrian sports. It is located within the administrative boundaries of the Municipality of Markopoulo, in the area of Merenta, at a distance of 43 kilometers from the center of Athens and 13 kilometers from the Athens International Airport.

It is suitable for the development of sports facilities and according to the Special Plan for the Spatial Development of Public Property that has been prepared, an area with the mandatory use of equestrian sports equestrian is defined, while in the rest of the property sports as well as mild commercial and tourist uses are allowed, with a complementary role to the operation of sports facilities.

The tender will take place in a single phase and the deadline for the submission of binding offers is set for November 30, 2022. ASPA S.A. operates on behalf of HRADF as a Technical Advisor, Platis - Anastasiades and Associates Law Firm as a Legal Advisor and ALPHA BANK as a Financial Advisor.

Additional information about the property is available in the invitation, which is posted on the HRADF website.
